O R D E R (ORAL)

Shri Justice V.S. Aggarwal:

During the course of submissions, on behalf of the respondents, it was stated at the Bar that the applicants have been promoted on ad hoc basis, therefore, they have no right for regularisation to the said post. However, it was ~~fairly~~ conceded that at present there are ~~no~~ regular vacancies available, therefore, the applicants cannot be regularised. But if and when the regular vacancies will arise, the applicants shall also be considered in accordance with law. It is also conceded that there is no likelihood of applicants' reversion. The respondents' learned counsel has no objection if an order is passed on these lines. This is accepted by applicants' learned counsel.

2. Accordingly, we dispose of the present application directing the respondents:-

- a) in case regular vacancies fall vacant, the claim of the applicants, who are working on ad hoc basis, shall be considered in accordance with law,
- b) the applicants shall not be reverted till such time one of the incumbents, who has lien on this post, returns; and
- c) till then the applicants will continue to work on ad hoc basis.
