is granted.

posts of Enquiry-cum-Reservation Clerk (ECRC) and Assistant Station Master (ASM) vide their advertisement issued in 1999. Both the applicants herein applied for the said post and qualified for both the posts. In the application form, they have indicated preference for the post of ECRC. However, the respondents have offered them the post of ASM. The learned counsel appearing for the applicants submits that the respondents were duty bound to honour the preference shown by the applicants and since both of them had qualified for the post of ECRC, the respondents should have offered them the post of ECRC.

4. The applicants herein have made representations in the matter vide representations placed on record at A-7 collectively. The latest representation is dated April, 2001. There has been no response to the aforesaid representations.

5. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned counsel and the aforestated facts and circumstances, we find it just and proper to dispose of the present OA at this very stage even without issuing notices with a direction to the respondents to consider the aforesaid representations and to pass a reasoned and a speaking order thereon expeditiously and in any event within a maximum period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. dv

6. The present OA is disposed of in the aforestated terms at the admission stage itself.
