O R D E R (O R A L)

Shri Bhardwaj presses the case for consideration of the OA in the Principal Bench, which is stoutly objected to by Sh. Rajinder Khattar, who points out that as the P.T. has already been rejected by the Hon'ble Chairman on 27.9.2002, the applicant should seek his remedy before the appropriate forum.

2. I have considered the matter. I find that as the learned counsel for the respondents has brought out PT in this matter has disallowed by the Hon'ble Chairman on 27.9.2002. That being the case the request for grant of any
