O R D E R (ORAL)

By Sh. V.K. Majotra, Vice Chairman (A)

Although respondents have not filed the compliance affidavit, ^{lb} Sh. R.P. Aggarwal, counsel of the respondents has ^{Today lb} filed certain documents, copy whereof has been supplied to the counsel of the applicant. Sh. Aggarwal stated that applicant has been paid all arrears in compliance of directions of the Court contained in order dated 25.4.2003. Learned counsel of the applicant has admitted that all dues have been paid to the applicant.

2. Basically the compliance should have been effected within a period of 3 months of Tribunal's directions. However, considering that no deliberate and contumacious disobedience of the orders of the Court has been committed, directions having been complied now, taking a lenient view the CP is dismissed having been rendered infructuous. Notices are discharged.
