Learned counsel heard.

2. Respondents have filed supplementary affidavit dated 20.1.2004 in compliance of directions of this Court contained in order dated 27.1.2003 in OA-3197/2002 (Annexure P-1).

Learned counsel of the respondents Sh. Gangwani explained that respondents have paid up all dues to the applicant ~~excepting~~ a sum of Rs.23,913/- and also that PPO regarding pension plus relief as per extant instructions from time to time has yet to be issued. Learned counsel assured that respondents undertake to pay up the sum of Rs.23,913/- as also to issue a PPO within a period of 2 weeks from now.

3. Counsel of the applicant stated that he has no objection to respondents fulfilling the assurance within a period of 2 weeks. However, applicant should be granted liberty to take legal recourse to balance of any due amount.

4. In the above backdrop, respondents are directed to pay to the applicant a balance amount of Rs.23,913/- and also issue PPO as stated above within a period of 2 weeks from now. Applicant shall have liberty as claimed above. CP is disposed of in the above terms. Notices to the respondents are discharged.
