O R D E R (ORAL)

The grievance of applicant is that having worked for ten years, he is entitled for pension as he has completed ten years qualifying service. Despite this, respondents have not accorded him pension.

2. Applicant has preferred representation to respondents, which has not yet been responded to.

3. In this view of the matter, OA is disposed of, at the admission stage itself, by directing respondents to dispose of the representation of applicant and also treat this OA as supplementary representation and pass a detailed, reasoned and speaking order within a period of six weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. If
