O R D E R (ORAL)

By Justice V.S. Aggarwal, Chairman

While making the submissions, applicant's counsel has informed this Tribunal that the mistake that occurred with the department has since been corrected. The applicant has been shown senior to the persons who have since been promoted. The only grievance of the applicant presently is that he should also be given the same benefit and so promoted. He has submitted a representation dated 23.8.2002 to Secretary (Services), respondent no.3 herein which is pending consideration.

2. If what is being stated at the Bar is correct, it would be appropriate that decision with respect to the applicant and his promotion if any, should also be taken preferably within four months from the receipt of the certified copy of this order. Needless to emphasise that it has to be done in accordance with relevant rules. Nothing said herein should be taken as any expression on the merits of the case.

The O.A. is disposed of.
