Apparently, we heard the learned counsels in great detail. It appears that in 1994 itself the status of the applicant was decided and therefore, the concerned department should have fully counted the past services also, as it is already declared by the Government that past services should be counted.

2. Shri M.V. Rao, learned counsel for the respondents submits that even though in one case, the Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka had granted 15% interest, that may not be a fair proposal, but then we find that we had followed it in many other cases also. However, there is no equivalent request from the applicant's side. Therefore, we will direct the respondents to pay interest also calculable at the rate of GPF and make it available to the applicant within two months next. OA allowed .No costs.
