We heard this matter. It appears that the Government employee had only less than 9 months to retire when he passed away. We also think, going by the stipulations made by the applicants themselves, they own one acre of agricultural land. They have their own house and therefore, after considering everything, the Committee had found that they are not indigent enough to be considered. After great detailed examination at the bar, there might not be anything wrong in the consideration made by the respondents.

2. There is no merit in the OA. Dismissed. No costs.
