Heard. Both the counsel submit that since the applicant had filed a representation/appeal against the removal, they agree that the representation/appeal can be disposed of by the concerned authority within the next 2 months' time. They will also consider whether the appointment of the applicant had any juncture with caste status or not. If caste was not the issue at the time of appointment, then whether he was a SC or not, has no relevance. Otherwise, it will definitely have. Till then he will be allowed to continue for an extra one month for him to seek whatever relief he wants to. Therefore, for further 3 months, we will allow him to stay in the quarter, provided the decision is taken after hearing him. OA disposed of. No costs.
