ORDER (ORAL)

HON'BLE DR K.B.SURESH, MEMBER (J)

1. Heard. Apparently, during the interregnum of the enquiry being conducted, applicant had admitted the charges and the department had proceeded in accordance with rules and imposed a punishment. We find that applicant had been given all opportunities to conduct a defence. But, now he claims that he was made to believe that he will be treated leniently and that is why he admitted the charges.

2. Therefore, with anxious eyes we had gone into the matter and asked the learned counsel whether he has any contrary evidence to offer even at this stage. Even at this point of time, forget the stage of pleadings, he has no contradictory evidence to offer. That being so, we have to hold that truth is established and also all the opportunities has been given and natural justice seems to have been followed. So, no merit in the OA. OA is dismissed. No order as to costs.
