ORDER (ORAL)

MR. SANJEEV KAUSHIK, MEMBER(J):-

1. The applicant herein assails order dated 16.08.2012 (Annexure A-1) whereby his claim for appointment on compassionate grounds has been turned down for want of vacancy.

2. Heard Sh. Barjesh Mittal, learned counsel for the applicant. He vehemently argues that the action of the respondents in closing the case of the applicant for compassionate appointment for consideration in subsequent meetings of CRC is not in line with DOPT OM dated 26.07.2012, wherein the earlier time limit of three years for considering cases of compassionate appointment was withdrawn and thereafter vide OM dated 30.05.2013, the DOPT clarified that there is no time limit for compassionate appointment and the request for such appointment can be carried forward to next or more years without there being any time limit, but, subject to the merit of the case.

3. In view of the above, learned counsel requested that respondents be directed to consider his case again in terms of the indicated OM of DOPT since the respondents have considered his case only once and that too in the year 2012.

4. Issue notice.

5. Sh. Sanjay Goyal, Sr. CGSC, accepts notice on behalf of the respondents and submits that the case of the applicant will be considered alongwith other persons for compassionate appointment in the next Circle Relaxation Committee meeting.

6. In the wake of the above, I dispose of the present OA in limine, by directing the respondents to consider the claim of the applicant in terms of the indicated policy and if he is found eligible, he may be given appointment on compassionate grounds, otherwise, a reasoned and speaking order be passed and communicated to the applicant. There shall be no order as to costs.
