ORDER (ORAL)

Hon'ble Mr. Ashish Kalia, Judl. Member

The present O.A. is filed by the applicants challenging the action of the 1st respondent by proceeding dated 7.11.2017 in finalising the inter-se seniority of doctors initially appointed on ad hoc basis during 1985-86 and regularised by UPSC after interview in 1992, by revising the existing seniority of Indian Railway Medical Service (IRMS) officers recruited after due selection by UPSC during 1984-86 by placing them above, based on their date of appointment on ad hoc basis and consequential action of the 1st and 3rd respondent by proceeding dated 1.12.2017 and 20.12.2017 for considering them for further promotions based on the antedating of seniority being contrary to the larger bench decision of the Honøble Supreme Court.

2. On notice, respondents filed a detailed reply, stating that the Honøble Supreme Court in Civil Appeal No.6113/2008, allowed the benefit to adhoc appointees.

3. Heard Sri M.C. Jacob, learned counsel for the applicants and Sri S.M. Patnaik, learned counsel for the respondents.

4. During the course of arguments, learned counsel for the applicants produced a copy of the order of the Co-ordinate Bench of C.A.T. at Jabalpur in OA/203/184/2018 and submits that the case of the applicants is squarely covered by it. The operative portion of the order reads as under:

õ20. Therefore, the right cause of action would be to follow the law laid down by three Judge Bench of Honøble Supreme Court in the matters of Lalita S. Rao (supra).

21. In this view of the matter, the impugned seniority list (Annex.A-1) deserves to be quashed and set aside as it is contradictory to the verdict laid down by the Honøble Supreme Court in the matters of Lalita S. Rao (supra).

22. In the result, the O.A. is allowed. The impugned seniority list issued on 7.11.2017 (Annex.A-1) is quashed and set aside. No costs.ö

5. A perusal of the order dated 4.10.2019 of the Jabalpur Bench in OA/203/184/2018 makes it clear that the case of the present applicants is fully covered by it. We are of this view that the impugned orders are liable to be quashed and set aside. We do so. The respondents are directed to extend the benefit of the said judgement to the applicants herein within 90 days from the date of receipt of this order. No order as to costs.
