Justice V.S. Aggarwal:-

On 7.11.2002, OA No.2103/2001 had been taken up for arguments. The order so passed clearly reveals that during the course of submissions, the prayer made was pertaining to three documents that were not supplied and the respondents' counsel had undertaken to supply the same. Accordingly the application was disposed of.

2. By virtue of the present review application, the applicant seeks to contend that the charge-sheet was delayed and in this regard no finding had been given.

3. The order clearly shows that the same had been passed with the consent of the parties because only one prayer was made which was allowed. It is too late in the day to raise such a plea.

4. Resultantly, the review application fails and is dismissed by circulation.
