... Applicants

versus

Union of India : Through

1. The Secretary
Ministry of Defence
Army Headquarter, New Delhi
2. The Officer Commandant
Ordnance Depot, Shakurbasti, New Delhi ... Respondents

O R D E R (ORAL)

By Hon'ble Mrs. Lakshmi Swaminathan, VC (J):-

Heard Shri B.S. Mainee, learned counsel for the applicants.

2. This application has been filed by Shri Surender Singh and 65 others who claim that they are working as Tent Menders with the respondents. Their grievance is that the respondents have failed to give them the same scale of pay as has been given to Tailors whose duties and functions are similar to them, i.e., Tent Menders. Learned counsel has also relied on the judgements of the Tribunal (Guwahati Bench) in Nripendra Mohan Paul & Ors. Vs. Union of India & Ors. (OA-158/94) decided on 19.10.1995 which has been followed by the Principal Bench in Satbir Singh & Ors. Vs. Union of India & Anr. (OA-1326/99) decided on 6.9.2000, copies placed on record. He has also relied on Annexure A-3 order dated 16.4.1999 issued by the respondents in which it has been, inter alia, stated that the duties of Tailors and Tent Menders are similar and, therefore, the recommendations were made that both these trades should be merged and formed into one category. Shri B.S.Maine, learned counsel has drawn our attention to the representation made by the applicants dated 16.10.2000 to respondent 2 followed by reminders. In these representations, they have prayed for similar benefits to be given as has been given in the judgments of the Tribunal in Guwahati Bench as well as the Principal Bench (supra).

3. Noting the above facts and circumstances and the submissions made by the learned counsel for the applicants, we consider it proper to dispose of the OA with the following directions:-

4. The respondents are directed to consider the claims of the applicants taking into account the benefits granted to applicants in OA-158/94 (Guwahati Bench) and OA-1326/99 (Principal Bench) of the Tribunal. In case they are rejecting the applicants' claims for upgradation of their pay scale, they shall do so by passing a detailed, reasoned and speaking order, giving the relevant provisions of law, rules and instructions they rely upon and also the distinguished¹⁸ features in the case of the applicants, to those of the applicants in those cases. This shall be done within three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, with intimation to applicant 1, who shall in turn inform the other concerned persons. In the circumstances of the case, in case the applicants are aggrieved by the order, they are at liberty to pursue their ~~legal~~¹⁸ remedies as are available to them in accordance with law. No costs.
