3. The respondents have filed their reply.

It is stated that there is no cause of action arisen in the present OA as the respondents have not yet issued any transfer orders. It is also stated that in case the applicant has any grievance regarding his service conditions, he is at liberty to raise the same before the respondents. In this view of the matter as the respondents have themselves made a statement that no transfer orders have been issued by them, the present OA has become infructuous. However, if the applicant is aggrieved by any action of the respondents, he is at liberty to make a representation before the respondents and thereafter, if so wishes, to approach this Tribunal in accordance with law. The OA is accordingly disposed of. No costs.
