O R D E R (Oral)

By Shri Shanker Raju, M(J):

MA 1832/2002 is to revive the OA which has been held in abeyance on account of pendency of a case. MA for revival of the OA is allowed.

2. In view of the decision of the Apex Court in Mohan Pal Vs. Union of India & Others, 2002(4) Scale 216 where the DoPT Scheme of 1993 has been held to be one time measure and temporary status to be accorded to those who were in engagement on the date of commencement of the Scheme, i.e., 1.9.1993. As, admittedly, the applicants in this OA have not been in employment on the date of introduction of the Scheme and have engaged on casual basis subsequently, have no legal enforceable right to seek temporary status as per the aforesaid Scheme. In this view of the matter, the OA is dismissed. Interim order vacated. No costs.

3. However, it goes without saying that in the event of availability of work of casual nature, respondents shall consider the applicants for engagement in preference to juniors and outsiders.
