By Justice Ashok Agarwal, Chairman

In response to an advertisement issued, applicant had applied for the post of Lower Division Clerk. She had appeared and successfully cleared the examination held in 1987. However, her candidature had then been cancelled as she had failed to produce an attested copy of her matriculation certificate. Nothing happened thereafter till she received a communication of 5.2.97 at Annexure A-17 (page 40) calling upon her to contact Staff Selection Commission alongwith full details in regard to the aforesaid Clerk Grade Examination, 1987. She accordingly contacted the SSC alongwith all the documents. Since no action was taken, she submitted her representation of 17.2.97. No response thereto was received by her.
