3. The learned proxy counsel for the applicant submits that the applicant is fully qualified in accordance with the aforesaid provision and should, therefore, have been considered by the SSC. The said Commission has, however, rejected the candidature of the applicant by issuing a baldly worded Memorandum dated 6.9.2001 (Annexure A-1). The same merely states that the applicant does not possess the essential qualifications laid down for the post of JHT. It does not provide as to the manner and to the extent^{to} which the applicant has been found to be disqualified. Aggrieved by the aforesaid Memorandum, the applicant has filed a representation before the ~~Under~~[✓] Secretary, SSC on 13.9.2001 (Annexure A-7 Colly.) which has been followed^{by} by another representation dated 27.9.2001 addressed to the Chairman, SSC. There has been no response from either so far.

4. Having regard to the submissions made by the learned proxy counsel, we find that the interest of justice will be duly met in this case by disposing of the OA at this very stage even without issuing notices with a direction to respondent No.1 to consider the aforesaid representations and to pass a reasoned and a speaking order as expeditiously as possible and in any event within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. Meanwhile, the appointments made hereafter in pursuance of the aforesaid notice will be subject to the final orders to be passed by the respondent-authority as above. During the same period of three months, they will keep one post of JHT vacant. We direct & accordingly. dr
