-Respondents

ORDER (Oral)

Heard.

2. MA-2454/2001 for joining together is allowed.

3. The claim of the applicants is for inclusion of their names in the Live Casual Labour Register and for further re-engagement and regularisation. The learned counsel of the applicants states that certificates have been issued regarding the work rendered by the applicants which is permissible as per the Full Bench decision in Mahavar Vs. Union of India 2000 (3) ATJ 1. Having regard to the ratio laid down by the High Court in Shish Pal Singh & Ors. Vs. Union of India 2000 (1) ATJ 153 which has been further placing reliance in Billu Singh's case, the present OA is disposed of at the admission stage itself by directing the applicant to file a representation to the respondents who shall consider the same in view of the observations made above and to pass a detailed and speaking order within two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. A copy of this order and OA be sent to the respondents. In case they are still aggrieved, they are at liberty to assail any cause of action in accordance with law. No costs.
