O R D E R (ORAL)

By Hon'ble Smt. Lakshmi Swaminathan, VC (J)

Heard both the learned counsel for the parties in CP 189/2003 in OA 2206/2001.

2. Our attention has been drawn to Annexure R-1 to the reply affidavit filed by the respondents which is an order issued by them dated 14-1-2003, which is stated to be in compliance of Tribunal's order dated 23-9-2002. Sh. R.L.Dhawan, learned counsel ~~further~~^{Bc} submits that further necessary action flowing from the revised seniority list effecting the applicant in OA will be taken by the respondents in due course in accordance with rules. As we note that this order itself has been issued as far back as 14-1-2003, we see no reason why the respondents ought not to have issued ^{the} consequential orders in accordance with law till date.

3. In the circumstances of the case, further four weeks time from the date of receipt of a copy of this order is granted to the respondents to fully comply with the Tribunal's order and pass consequential orders following the order dated 14-1-2003, with intimation to the applicant.

4. In the facts and circumstances of the case, as the respondents have taken steps towards compliance of the aforesaid order of the Tribunal, we do not consider it necessary to take further action to punish the alleged contemnors in contempt jurisdiction.

5. Accordingly CP 189/2003 is dismissed. Notices to the alleged contemnors are discharged subject to the observations made above. File to be consigned to the Record Room.
