Shri Kuldip Singh:-

Heard both the learned counsel.

2. Learned counsel for respondents pointed out that the respondents have complied with the directions of the Tribunal dated 22.10.2002 and they have issued instructions to the concerned Pay & Accounts Officer. Therefore, nothing further survives in this petition.

3. On the other hand, learned counsel for applicant points out that the letter addressed to the Pay & Accounts Officer shows that the Department has annexed along with the said letter a due and drawn statement indicating the amount to be paid to the applicant and since the same has not been supplied to the applicant, he is unable to check it up.

4. However; we find that the order has been complied with by the respondents but the respondents are directed to supply the copy of the due and drawn statement to the applicant.

5. With these directions, CP is disposed of. Notices are discharged. If any grievance still survives, the applicant may file a fresh petition, if so advised, in accordance with law.
