O R D E R (Oral)

By Hon'ble Mrs. Lakshmi Swaminathan, VC (J) :

None is present on behalf of the applicants when the case is called out, although earlier at the mention~~ed~~ time, learned proxy counsel Shri Mohd. Ayub had appeared seeking an adjournment which was not granted at that stage.

2. Heard Shri H.K. Gangwani, learned counsel for the respondents and perused the relevant documents on record.

3. It is noticed that in pursuance of the

YLV

(3)

Tribunal's order dated 17.10.2001 in OA No.857/2001, the respondents had issued Office Memorandum dated 24/26.12.2001 (R-1). The learned counsel has submitted that with reference to the averments made in paragraph 2.5 in the counter reply to the CP regarding applicant No.12, i.e., Shri Sanjay Kalra, who is also a petitioner in the CP, further action has been taken as reflected in the OM dated 24/26.12.2001 (R-1). The learned counsel has submitted that since necessary documents regarding educational qualification and experience of that applicant have been submitted, they will do the needful in implementing the Tribunal's order. Noting the above facts and submissions, it cannot be concluded that the respondents have willfully and contumaciously disobeyed the orders of this Tribunal, justifying further action to be taken against them for punishment under the provisions of Contempt of Courts Act, 1971 read with Section 17 of the Administrative Tribunals Act, 1985. However, we presume that the respondents will take necessary action with respect to applicant No.12 in the manner done for the other applicants as expeditiously as possible.

4. In the above facts and circumstances of the case, CP 384/2002 is dismissed. Notices to the alleged contemnors are discharged and file be consigned to the record room.
