ORDER (Oral)

The present Contempt Petition complains of non-observance of an order passed on 6.9.2001 in OA-2325/2001 whereby respondents were directed to pass a speaking and reasoned order in respect of the representations of the applicants for considering their claim for promotion within a period of four weeks from the date of service of the order. Though belatedly, respondents have passed an order on 1.1.2002 at Annexure R-1. Respondents have also tendered unconditional apology for the delay caused in passing the orders.

2. Having regard to the aforestated facts, we do not find it a fit case to take action for contempt. Present Contempt Petition is accordingly disposed of. Notices issued are discharged. It goes without saying that in case the order of 1.1.2002 is adverse to the applicants, they will be at liberty to impugn the same in accordance with law. No order as to costs.
