grievance of the applicant that he was considered but he was not appointed though he was top on the merit list.

3. This is the second round of litigation of the applicant before the Tribunal. The applicant, aggrieved by the order of removal approached the Tribunal in OA-1983/93. The Bench while confirming the order of removal, however observed that there could not be any objection to reconsider the posting of the applicant in accordance with the rules under Rule 7(ii) of EDAs (Conduct and Service) Rules, 1964. The removal order was not a disqualification for future employment. The present OA is filed alleging that the applicant was considered as per the above order but he was not appointed though he was on the top of the merit list.

4. The only direction given by the Tribunal in the OA was that the applicant was entitled for consideration for future employment. Accordingly, the applicant was considered for the future employment. No material is placed before us that even though the applicant was on top of the merit list, he was not appointed, except the ipsi-digit of the applicant. Unless the applicant establishes a prima-facie case, the respondents cannot be called upon to reply. We do not find any merit in the OA.

5. The OA is dismissed. No costs.
