O R D E R (Oral)

Hon'ble Shri Justice Ashok Agarwal, Chairman

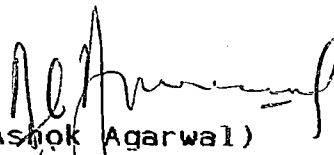

For the post of Scientist 'B' essential qualifications which are prescribed are (i) Ist Class (with not less than 65% marks) M.Sc. in Chemistry or M.Phil/Ph.D in Science Communication with basic Master's degree in Chemistry. Applicant did not possess either of the aforesaid qualification on the date of issue of the notification inviting applications or on the date of her application. She having acquired M.Phil/Ph.D at a later date will not entitle her to be qualified for the post. If one has regard to the ratio laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the State of Rajasthan Vs. Harendra Kumar Bhatt, JT 1997(7) SC 287 <sup>a</sup> ~~the~~ conclusion is irresistible that applicant cannot be continued on the aforesaid post. <sup>therefore</sup> The impugned order cancelling her appointment cannot <sup>L</sup> be successfully assailed. Similarly, contention advanced on behalf of the applicant that the appointment cannot be cancelled with retrospective effect, i.e., from the date of her appointment, in our view, is <sup>also</sup> ~~L~~ without substance, as her very appointment is non-est since she lacks the requisite qualification for holding the said post as on the date of receiving applications for the said post. Accordingly, the OA is dismissed at the admission stage itself.

A copy of this order may be given to the learned counsel for the applicant today itself.
