ORDER (Oral)

By Reddy, J.-

Heard the counsel for the applicant and the respondents.

2. It is the case of the applicant that ~~she~~ is a casual labour and has worked for more than 230 days in the year 1997 and more than 240 days in the year 1998. This fact is, however, not clearly admitted in the counter affidavit filed by the respondents. In the absence of any certificate, it cannot be decided whether the applicant in fact worked for more than 240 days in the year 1998. The plea of the applicant is that he is entitled for grant of temporary status, cannot be accepted straightaway. It is for the respondents to consider whether the applicant had in fact worked for more than 240 days.

3. The OA is disposed of directing the respondents to grant the temporary status ^{✓ after ascertaining as per} to the applicant in accordance with law. It should be emphasised that the applicant is also entitled for consideration, if the respondent takes freshers on contract basis, in preference to any freshers for re-engagement. No costs.
