O R D E R (ORAL)

Hon'ble Smt. Lakshmi Swaminathan, Member (J)

The main prayer of the applicants in both these OAs is similar and therefore, learned counsel for both the parties have stated that these cases may be considered together and disposed of by a common order.

2. Learned counsel for the applicants relies on the judgement of the Tribunal in All India Association of Asstt. Supdt.(I), NSSO, FOD, Deptt. of Statistics and Ors Vs. UOI & Ors (OA 1374/1998) which was disposed of on 6.11.1998, copy placed at Annexure A-4. The prayer of the applicants<sup>is</sup> for similar directions as given in that OA, for replacement of the applicants in the pay scale of Rs.6500-10,5000. Sh.K.R.Sachdeva, learned counsel has submitted that the Tribunal's order relied upon by the applicants has, on appeal filed by the respondents (Civil Writ petition No.144/99) quashed and set aside by the Hon'ble Delhi High Court by their order dated 6.7.99 (Annexure R-1). Admittedly, against the order of the Delhi High Court, the applicants in those cases have filed<sup>a</sup> Special Leave Petition before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The Apex Court by order dated 9.8.1999 has ordered as follows:-

" Leave granted. Printing dispensed with. Appeals shall be heard on the SLP paper books. Liberty to mention.

The disbursement of salary in the scale objected to by the respondents shall be subject to the ultimate decision of the appeals."

In the above circumstances, learned counsel for the applicants has submitted that the present OAs, namely, OA 563/99 and OA 565/99, may be disposed of giving the applicants such of the reliefs as may be granted by the Hon'ble Apex Court to the similarly situated persons in the case pending before the Supreme Court (Supra ). Learned counsel has also prayed that liberty may be given to the applicants in case they are aggrieved by the implementation of the orders by the respondents. Shri K.R.Sachdeva, learned counsel for the respondents has also been heard. (26)

3. In view of the above facts and circumstances of the case, the OA 563/1999 and OA 565/1999 are disposed of as follows:-

The respondents shall consider the claim of the applicants in these applications, in the light of the final orders <sup>to be</sup> passed by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the aforesaid case. In the circumstances, liberty is granted to the applicants to pursue such other legal remedies as are available to them, in accordance with law thereafter.

No order as to costs.

Let a copy of this order be placed in OA 565/1999
