O R D E R (By Circulation)

By Justice V. Rajagopala Reddy:

The RA is filed only to expunge the adverse remarks that were made against the review applicant in disposing of the OA. In our view, this RA is not maintainable. The order cannot be recalled/reviewed unless patent errors are apparent on the face of the record. The Tribunal having found that the impugned selection was not proper commented upon the review applicant who was also present during the interview. Even if the comments are not wholly proper or correct, the remedy ^{is} elsewhere but not by way of review. The RA therefore fails and is dismissed, in circulation.
