3. Learned counsel for applicant further submits that the applicant is a poor person and he cannot afford to pay the costs awarded. But learned counsel for respondents, however, submits that the allegations made by the applicant against the respondents in the OA, have been reiterated herein and that as they were already considered and decided, the Review Application is liable to be dismissed.

4. We agree. Since all these allegations have been considered in the OA and an order was passed rejecting the application made by the applicant, the question of review of the said order on the same allegations would not arise.

5. However, in view of the fact that the applicant appears to be a poor person, we direct that the direction granting costs of Rs 500/- is hereby deleted.

6. The RA is accordingly disposed of.
