3. Further more respondents do not deny that except for the fact that applicant did not associate with the applicants in O.A. No. 214/97, he is otherwise similarly situated as them.

4. In the result this O.A. is disposed of with a direction to respondents to declare applicant's results in the selection test, and thereafter consider his case for regularisation within three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order, in the same manner as in the case of the applicants in o.A. No. 214/97 with admissible consequential benefits in accordance with rules and instructions. No costs.
