ORDER(ORAL)

JUSTICE K.M. AGARWAL:

After hearing the learned counsel for the parties, it does appear that if reliefs sought for in the present O.A. are granted to the applicants, they will run counter to the reliefs granted by Ernakulam Bench of the Tribunal in its common judgement in K.C. Jose vs. The Chief General Manager, OA No.1497/96 and three other O.As, dated 1.5.1998. During the course of arguments, it also transpired that the said judgement of the Ernakulam Bench has been challenged by filing a Civil Writ Petition in the Kerala High Court which is pending. In this back-ground, the learned counsel for the applicants wants to withdraw this O.A. for seeking appropriate remedy by approaching the Kerala High Court. Prayer is allowed.
