ORDER (Oral)

BY HON'BLE MR. S.R. ADIGE, VICE CHAIRMAN (A)

I am informed that applicant is confined to bed and his counsel has unfortunately expired.

2. Even on the last date none appeared on behalf of applicant and it had been noted that the departmental proceedings which were pending against applicant have been dropped. As applicant in the O.A. had prayed for release of his retiral dues Respondents' counsel Shri Pandita had been called upon to intimate whether the retiral dues have been paid to applicant or not.

3. Shri Pandita now has handed over letter dated 6.1.99 a copy of which has been taken on record, which states that payments of pension and other benefits have been released to applicant as per Bill No. 1470 and 1471 dated 1.1.99. (7)

4. As none appeared for applicant, and payments of retiral dues are stated to have been released this O.A. is dismissed as having become infructuous giving liberty to applicant that in the event any retiral dues ~~are~~[?] still remain to paid by respondents to him, he may seek to revive the present O.A. for adjudication on merits.

S.R. Adige
