O R D E R

delivered by Hon'ble Shri T.N.Bhat, Member (J)

This common order disposes of the above-titled three OAs as the questions involved in all these OAs is identical. The common question involved is as to whether persons appointed as Home Guards have any right of being regularised in the service or even to continue in service

by

after the expiry of the initial period of three years envisaged in the provisions contained in the Bombay Home Guards Act as applicable to National Capital Territory of Delhi read with the Delhi Home Guards Rules.

2. The above question is no longer res integra, as the same has been settled by a series of recent decisions of this Tribunal which were based upon the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in R.D.Sharma's case (SLP No.12465 of 1990) delivered on 30.7.1991. It has been held that Home Guards have no right to claim regularisation or any other such relief as their service is essentially voluntary in nature. By a detailed judgment dated 11.1.99 in OA-2006 of 1998, by a co-ordinate Bench discussed the law on the subject and held that a Home Guard cannot claim any relief from the Tribunal after the period of his initial engagement is over. There are several other judgments delivered by this Bench also holding a similar view. We may in this regard refer to our common judgment dated 18.2.98 in OA-2323 of 1998 and another OA which was later upheld by a Division Bench of Delhi High Court.

3. Viewed as such we find no merit in these OA's which have been filed by the respective applicants challenging the termination notices issued to them by the respondents. We accordingly dismiss these OAs at the admission stage itself. The last mentioned OA is dismissed in limine.

4. A copy of this judgment be placed on each of the files.
