in the year 1990 he put in 221 days of service and in 1993 he put in 217 days of service and would therefore qualify for grant of temporary status in accordance with the Casual Labourer (Grant of Temporary Status and Regularisation) Scheme, 1993 as per respondents' own records. My attention has also been invited to seniority list in respect of daily workers in Respondents-deptt. in which applicant's name features at Sl.No.17 while others engaged subsequent to him are stated to be continued in service.

4. Respondent-department is a large one and when the next occasion arises for engagement of casual labourers, applicant's case for engagement should be considered against the same. Upon re-engagement applicant will be entitled to grant of temporary status in accordance with the aforesaid Scheme with effect from the date he put in the required number of days of service with respondents. He may subsequently work out his claims for regularisation in accordance with rules and instructions on the subject.

5. The OA is disposed of in terms of para 4 above. No costs.
