before the official respondents as alleged in paragraph 6 of the application. It is alleged, that the representation has not been decided so far and, therefore, this OA has been filed.

3. The learned counsel submitted that this OA can be disposed of at the admission stage itself by directing the official respondents to decide the aforesaid representation of the applicant within a specified time. Accordingly, we dispose of this OA by directing the respondents to dispose of the aforesaid representation dated 24.9.1997 of the applicant within a period of three months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. In the meanwhile, the applicant may also co-operate by supplying them with a fresh copy of the representation so that there may not be any delay on the ground that the representation is misplaced. If ultimately the representation is not decided favourably and the applicant feels aggrieved, he will be at liberty to re-agitate the matter before the Tribunal.
