conclude the departmental enquiry, which is said to have commenced in February, 1997 as expeditiously as possible, and preferably before the applicant's date of superannuation, i.e., 31.7.1998.

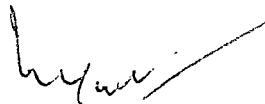

3. In this connection, Shri Bisht has also stated that the applicant has been handicapped in his defence for want of necessary documents, for which a prayer was also made on 24.11.1997 (Annexure A-4) to which no reply has been given. He states that even earlier also the applicant had sought for the relevant documents, but the same have not been supplied to him.

4. Respondents are directed to examine the contents of the applicant's representation dated 24.11.1997, and furnish to the applicant, as expeditiously as possible, the relevant documents which he states are essential to his defence. In the event that the respondents consider any document not essential to applicant's defence, they shall record written reasons for coming to such a conclusion, under intimation to the applicant.

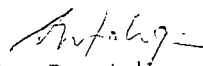

5. In this connection, we also call upon the applicant to cooperate fully with the respondents in the departmental enquiry, so that it can be concluded as expeditiously as possible.
