Order (Oral)

(By Hon'ble Shri S.R. Adige, Member (A) )

In this CCP bearing No.177/95 the applicant Shri Chatter Singh has alleged contemacious disobedience by the respondents of the Tribunals judgement dated 26.4.95 in O.A. No.741/94 Shri Chatter Singh Vs Union of India & Ors, and to direct the respondents to restore electricity and water supply to Railway Quarter No. 21A Railway Colony, Tughlakabad.

the competent authority and his letter dated 5.5.95 (Annexure CR 12) stating that he has been allotted the quarter by the Court Order dated 26.4.95.

2. In the operative portion of that judgement the Tribunal had directed the respondents that in terms of their own notice dated 31.10.94, if no valid objection had been received to the allotment of Qr No.21A, Railway Colony, Tuglakabad to the applicant within a week of its issue then in term of that notice the respondents should allot that quarter or any other suitable quarter to the applicant within 1 month from the date of receipt of a copy of that judgement.

4. The judgement dated 26.4.95 was only a direction to the respondents that if no objection was received to their notice dated 31.10.94 within 1 month of its issue, to allot Qr No.21A, Railway Colony, Tughalakabad or any other suitable quarter to the applicant. It by no means could be construed as a licence to the applicant to take forcible occupation of the premises without a valid allotment letter issued by the Competent Authority.

5. In the light of this conduct of the applicant, no cause for initiating action against the respondents under the Contempt of Courts Act is made out. The CCP is dismissed and the notice against the respondents are discharged.

6. Before parting with this case we would observe that the judgement dated 26.4.95 directed the respondents to allot Qr No.21A, Railway Colony, Tughalakabad or any other suitable quarter to the applicant. In the background of ~~that~~ judgement, <sup>the</sup> respondents should allot any other suitable quarter to the applicant within a month of the receipt of a copy of this order, without prejudice to such action under law as they may <sup>choose</sup> ~~take~~ to take against the applicant for forcible occupation of Qr.no.21A, Railway Colony, Tughalakabad.

7. No costs.
