O R D E R (ORAL)

Hon'ble Shri J.P. Sharma, Member(J)

The proxy counsel appears and states that the applicant Raj Kumar by the order dated 16.6.94 was re-designated as Labourer(Un-skilled) though he was working Weighman(Un-skilled) and on direction issued by the Tribunal in D.A.No.1429/94 by the order dated 9.3.95, the aforesaid order dated 16.6.94 was quashed considering the applicant as having continued as Weighman(Un-skilled) and also be given consequential benefits and the respondents have not complied with this direction.

Certified copy of the judgement has been despatched by the Registry on 23.3.95. We find that the applicant has come too early before this Bench. In the order for compliance no time limit has been prescribed for the order on which contempt is alleged. Normally three months period is taken as reasonable period, but the same has not yet been conveyed to the respondents by any representation by the petitioner. In view of this, we do not entertain this C.P. and the applicant is free to make a representation to the respondents that the order be complied with mentioning that the reasonable period may be taken as 3 months period. The application is disposed of accordingly.
