ORDER

In this Review Application, the applicant prays for review of the order of this Tribunal dated 5.5.1995. A Review Application lies only when an apparent error on the face of the record is found. The Review Application is only a rehash of the pleadings in the Original Application and no good ground has been made out for the review. There is no apparent <sup>or</sup> ~~error~~ mistake on the face of record. There is, however, a typographical error in page 6 of the judgment. In the factual position in respect of the applicants vis-a-vis his junior, which is extracted in that page, the name of Shri O.P. Sharma has been printed inadvertently insted of Shri O.P. Malhotra.. I have made the correction in the original order. The Review Application is accordingly rejected.
