ORDER

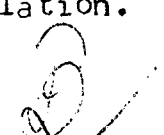

Hon'ble Shri J.P. Sharma, Member (J)

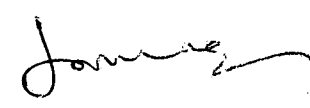

The applicant has filed a Review Application against the order of 10.5.1994 by which the application was dismissed bearing by principle of res judicata. Earlier the applicant filed O.A. No. 1212/88 which was decided on 12.12.1990 and the respondents were directed to pay to the applicant a difference of pay and allowance actually drawn in the scale of Rs. 550-900 and pay the scale of pay of Rs. 650-1200. The arrears were also directed to be paid to the applicant alongwith the interest. However, the applicant had superannuated three months before the delivery of the judgement on 30.9.1990. After her retirement the applicant represented for her promotion from the retrospective date to the post of Sr. Superintendent and that request was rejected by the order passed in December 1993. The applicant has not raised this issue in her earlier application filed in OA-1212/88. We have considered this matter in our judgement at a greater length and found that the application is not maintainable. We do not find any ground referred to in the Review Application which can show any error apparent on the face of the Order. The Review Applicant has only discussed certain new points or rejected arguments taken at the time of hearing of the Original Application. A review lies on any of the grounds laid down under Order 47 Rule 1 C.P.C. i.e. when there is an error apparent on the face of the order or certain new evidence which was not in the knowledge of the petitioner is pressed for consideration in the review application and on similar other grounds. We do not find that the present case is covered under Order 47 Rule 1 CPC. The Review Application, therefore, is devoid of merit and dismissed by Circulation.
