O R D E R (By Circulation)

Hon'ble Shri J.P. Sharma, Member (J)

The original application was filed by retired railway employee K.C. Sharma, and 71 others that they should be given the benefit which have been allowed to the petitioner in the case of Shri C.L. Malick and others and by the judgement of Full Bench, Central Administrative Tribunal, Bangalore Bench. It is also prayed that running allowance drawn by them before their superannuation from the railway service be taken into account in terms of Rule 2544 of the Indian Railways Establishment Manual for the purposes of fixation of Pension with the direction to the respondents to revise the pension and pay the arrears falling due after re-fixation of their pension alongwith interest.

2. The original application was filed on 9.4.1994. The O.A. was heard at the admission stage and was dismissed by the Division Bench by the Order dated 25.7.1994.

3. One of the applicants has filed this Review Application on the ground that the Tribunal has erred in inferring and concluding that the application is barred by delay, laches and limitation. It is also stated that the case of the applicant is not governed by Section 21 of the AT Act, 1985 which prescribes the period of limitation. It has also been taken as a ground that in the case of Shri R.R. Bhanot Vs. Union of India and others Judgement Today 1994(1) SC 1, the Hon'ble Supreme Court has granted the pensionary relief even after a decade and also a copy of the judgement of Single Bench, CAT, Jaipur Bench of a case OA No. 533/92 decided on 8.4.1994 has been filed with the Review Application.

4. We have considered all the grounds taken by the Review Applicant. The application has been dismissed on the point of delay and laches. The railway retiree of 1986, 87 and 1988 have joined together to file this application in April 1994. The only ground was that since there has been a decision in some of the cases of Central Administrative Tribunal so they should also be given the benefit of running allowance in fixation of pensionary benefits. The Tribunal has considered all these points in the detailed judgment. The points which have already been considered cannot be reagitated in the Review Application. The scope of the review is limited as under:

In this review application the applicant can not has again raise the same grounds as raised in the OA itslef. Under Order XLVII Rule 1, Civil Procedure Code, a judgement/decision/order can be reviewed only if (i) it suffers from an error apparent on the face of the record; (ii) on account of discovery of any new material or evidence which was not within the knowledge of the party or could not be produced by it at the time of the judgement was made despite due diligence; and (iii) for any sufficient reason, construed to mean analogous reasons. The forum of review cannot be used to challenge the merits of a judgement.

In AIR 1975 SC 1500 - Chandra Kanta & Anr. Vs.

Kanta & Anr. Vs. Sheikh Habib, the Hon'ble

Supreme Court has observed as follows:

"A review of a judgement is a serious step and reluctant resort to it is proper only where a glaring omission or patent mistake or like grave error has crept in earlier order by judicial fallibility. A mere repetition through different counsel of old and new overruled arguments, a second trip over ineffectually covered ground or minor mistake of inconsequential import are obviously insufficient."

5. Again in AIR 1979 SC 1407 - Aribam Tuleshwar Sharma Vs. Aribam Fishak Sharma & Ors., The Hon'ble Supreme Court has held as follows:

"The power of review can be exercised on the discovery of new and important matter or evidence which, after the exercise of due diligence was not within the knowledge of the person seeking the review or could not be produced by him at the time when the order was made; it may be exercised where some mistake or error apparent on the face of the record is found; it may also be exercised on any analogous ground. But, it may not be exercised on the ground that the decision was erroneous on merits. That would be the province of a court of appeal. A power of review is not to be confused with appellate power which may enable an appellate court to correct all manner of errors committed by the subordinate court".

6. The applicant cannot ask the rehearing of the whole case. The review applicant has himself file a copy of the judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court dated 16.12.1993 where the judgement of the Tribunal granting the relief to the applicants of Bangalore Bench of (A 80/93 has been assailed in SLP before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The judgement of the CAT has not become final and SLP against the same is pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court. The judgement never give a cause of action. If subsequently a declaration of law is made giving the benefit to certain petitioners in a Writ Petition or a case, then in that case those who are parties may get the benefit. Those who had come at the relevant point of time for asserting their claim can get the benefit. Those who come years after may not be granted that benefit by issue of a Writ because even if there was a right available the remedy was allowed to be lost by delay and laches. In the case of Rattan Chandra Samanta Vs. Union of India Judgement Today 1993(3)SC P 418 the Hon'ble Supreme Court held that a person who has lost his remedy by lapse of time loses his right as well. The Tribunal is not a court and has no power to condone the delay under Indian Limitation Act 1963 as held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in 1993(2) JT P 430.

7. As regards the decision of the Jaipur Bench i.e. by Single Member Bench and the points of limitation was not considered. Secondly, there is no mention that SLP is pending before the Hon'ble Supreme Court against the judgement delivered by various Benches of CAT. The case cited in the Review Application of R.R. Bhanot (Supra) is not at all applicable to the present case. Shri Bhanot rendered the service in the erstwhile State of Punjab and Himachal Pradesh. His premature retirement in Himachal Pradesh was set aside but he was not given any benefit of pension etc.

8. While considering this RA, MA 3310/94 has also been considered.

9. There is no error apparent on the face of the judgement. Review Application, therefore, is dismissed by Circulation.
