Order(by circulation)

(delivered by Hon'ble Mr B.N.Dhondiyal, Member(A)

This Review applicant has been filed by Ms D. Manjula, against the judgment of this Tribunal dated 16.8.1994.

2. The applicant is aggrieved that even though the adverse remarks in her A.C.Rs for the year 1991-92 have been expunged, her case for promotion as Assistant Foreign Language Examiner was not taken up by the U.P.S.C.

3. In our judgment dated 16.08.1994, we took note of the categorical statement made by the respondents in their counter-affidavit that a Departmental Promotion Committee was held on 16.06.1992 to consider the promotion for Assistant Foreign Language Examiner, Grade-I(Language). Four officers, including the applicant, were eligible. The Departmental Promotion Committee considered the character rolls of officers after 1991. It did not consider those of 1991-92. This being the case, there was no need to review the proceedings for the departmental promotion Committee.

4. The main ground taken in the review application is that the U.P.S.C. has not filed a reply and has not produced the record though it had been asked to do so. We have no reason to doubt that the departmental promotion committee held on 16.6.1992 had not considered the rolls of 1991-92. This Tribunal does not act as a Court of appeal over the proceedings of the departmental promotion committee and in view of the categorical statement made in the counter-affidavit, there was no need for this Tribunal to insist on going through the records.

4. The review application has no merit and it is hereby dismissed.
