ORDER (Oral)

By Mr. Ashok Agarwal, Chairman

The present RAs seek to impugn an order passed by the Full Bench in a bunch of OAs decided on 28.7.99. The short grievance of the applicants is that while the Full Bench was deciding the question of law which was referred to it, it has gone on to dispose of the main OAs themselves on merits. Applicants have, therefore, been deprived of agitating several other points which were involved in the OAs.

2. Aforesaid judgment of the Full Bench, we are informed, has been carried to the High Court. At one time ^{we felt that} if the High Court ~~has~~ ceased of the matter, ^{as well} the points which are now raised before us cannot ^{be} raised ^{before the High Court}. In order to enable the learned advocates to find out whether the Full Bench judgement has in fact been carried to the High Court and to further find out that if it has so been carried the stage at which the proceedings are pending. Present RAs by an order passed on 2.3.2000 stood adjourned to today. Parties and advocates are absent. We are, therefore, not informed about the position of the proceedings before the High Court. In the circumstances, we proceed to ~~hear and~~ dispose of the RAs on merits in the absence of the parties and advocates, as provided under Rule-15 of the C.A.T. (Procedure) Rules, 1987. (4A)

3. We find that the Full Bench while deciding the question of law which was referred to it for its decision has further gone on to dispose of the OAs themselves. This in our view has deprived the parties to agitate other questions which may arise for determination in the OAs. In the circumstances, we ~~may~~ recall the order of the Full Bench in so far as it disposed of the OAs. The order in so far as it decides the question of law is, The same is accordingly maintained. however, not disturbed. Present OAs are accordingly referred back to the concerned D.B. for being disposed of on merits in accordance with law. Present RAs are allowed in the aforesaid terms. No costs.
