ORDER(ORAL)

delivered by Hon'ble Dr. Jose P. Verghese, V.C.(J)

This contempt petition has been filed complaining non-implementation of the orders of this Tribunal dated 23.7.96. In fact, the respondent seems to have complied with the order prior to filing of this petition but for the lapse at the instance of some officer regarding the communicability between the officer complaining and the officer against whom the grievance is kept, the order was not handed over to the applicant. We do not intend to probe further into this matter. We would like to stop the issue here stating that a formal copy of the order shall be handed over to the petitioner through the officer who is supposed to have handed over to him in due course. Liberty is given to the petitioner to agitate any further infraction of our order continues to subsists. With this observation
