.... Respondents

(By Shri Rajinder Pandita, Advocate)

O R D E R(Oral)

Hon'ble Shri A.V.Haridasan, Vice-Chairman(J)

Heard the counsel on either side. The order passed by the respondents which apparently was against the order passed by the Tribunal have since been recalled and an appropriate order has been issued by them. They have also expressed regret and prayed that the further action in the matter may be dropped. Learned counsel for the Petitioner states that though the Petitioner's grievance has been redressed, the respondents have not tendered unconditional apology. Though, the word apology has not been mentioned in their replies, the respondents have regrets ^{the delay} ^{compliance with} ~~the action in support of the~~ ^{the direction.} ~~compliance report.~~ A feeling of repentance is obvious from the reply affidavit, therefore, we do not
