Dr. Jose P. Verghese, Vice Chairman (J)

The present contempt proceedings have been initiated at the instance of the petitioners complaining non-compliance of our final order dated 7.10.1996 in OAs. 1228/95 and 23996. After notice, respondents have now shown to us that they have complied with the order and the order dated 24.4.1997 has been produced before us. The learned counsel for the Respondents says, in strict terms the order dated 24.4.1997 is in compliance with the directions issued in the said case. No relief was given to the petitioner in the order passed by this court that in the event the petitioners succeed in the OA and in the meanwhile a petitioner retires at the age of sixty years, whether he/she will be entitled to all the benefits of service. But unfortunately direction passed by this court does not contain all these contentions of the petitioners. The petitioners are given opportunity to seek redressal of their grievances by way of Review Application or otherwise, if so advised. As for the present, we are satisfied that the orders passed by this court have been complied with by the respondents. With these, the Contempt Petition is disposed of and notice discharged.
