approached the Tribunal filing the CP praying for initiation of contempt proceedings against the respondents for non implementation of the order of the Tribunal dated 13.10.1995. When the CP came up for hearing for the first time on 31.5.1996, respondent no.1 was directed to remain personally present in the court or to depute a knowledgeable officer to be present on the next date to explain as to why the directions of the Tribunal contained in the order dated 13.10.1995 was not complied with.

2. Today, Shri P. H. Ramchandani, learned counsel for the respondents is present and shri R. P. Nag, Director (Administration) is also present. Shri Ramchandani states that the order has since been complied with and order on review has been passed on 7.7.1996. A copy of the order has been produced for our perusal. Though there is a delay, as the order has been complied with, we do not consider it necessary to proceed further with the matter. The CP is dismissed and the notice discharged.
