The application having been heard on 11.9.1996 the Tribunal on the same day delivered the following :

O R D E R

CHETTUR SANKARAN NAIR (J), CHAIRMAN —

Applicant challenges Annexure-A order dated 21.8.1995 made by a review Departmental Promotion Committee (DPC, for short) reverting applicant from the post of Superintendent to the post of Accountant with effect from 3.8.1995. Learned counsel for applicant challenges this order on the grounds that an order of reversion cannot be passed retrospectively, that the review DPC has no jurisdiction, and that one of the members of the review DPC, Shri Prabhakar, could not have sat on the DPC. In answer, learned standing counsel for respondents would submit that the order of reversion will only be prospective and not retrospective. Even so, the remaining contentions require consideration. We find that applicant has made A-9 representation and that it is pending consideration before respondent No.1. Respondent No.1 will consider A-9 representation with specific reference to the jurisdiction of the review DPC and the competency of Shri Prabhakar. A speaking order will be passed on the representation within three months from today and communicated to applicant.

2. Application is allowed to the extent indicated hereinbefore. No costs.

Dated, the 11th September, 1996.
