2 The respondents have contended that a disciplinary proceedings against the applicant initiated after his retirement is pending and, therefore, the applicant is being paid provisional pension and the release of monthly pension and other retirement benefits would abide by the decision of the disciplinary proceedings.

3 When the matter came up for hearing on admission, the learned counsel for the respondents states that the provisional pension though granted to the applicant by order dated 28.11.1995 for a period of six months <sup>and pay ment</sup> ~~portion~~ of the provisional pension would be continued till a final order in the disciplinary proceedings is passed by the competent authority. The learned counsel for the applicant taking ~~into~~ note of this statement by the learned counsel for the respondents at the Bar states that the application is not further pressed on the understanding that the provisional pension shall be continued to be paid to him till a final order is passed by the competent authority in the disciplinary proceedings.

Taking note of the above statement of the learned counsel that the provisional pension shall be monthly paid to the applicant
